Shelbians Win At District Art Festival

District IV of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs held its annual Fine Arts Festival Saturday at St. John's United Methodist Church in Gastonia.

Members of the Shelby Junior

Woman's Club winning first place in the arts division for club women were Mrs. Ken Crawley, oils; Mrs. David Cole, Water color and charcoal; Mrs. Roy Lynam, collage.

In the student art division, Charlotte Mincey placed first in oils, David Irvin first in mixed media, and Ricky Albertson first in linoleum print. Other winners were Joe Hunt, second; and Anne Young, third.

Winners in the crafts division were Mrs. John Atkinson, first, knitting; Mrs. Ken Crawley, first, metalcraft; Mrs. Larry Nelson, first, ceramics; Mrs. Charles Branny, second, floral arrangement; Mrs. Branny, second, sculpture; Mrs. John Atkinson, third, cross-stitch; Mrs. Larry Nelson, third, crewel. All are members of the Junior Woman's Club.

Ginny Cothran of Shelby was winner in the student sewing contest.

All art work will be displayed in downtown Shelby businesses from March 11 until April 1st. Some of the art will be for sale.

On April 4, all first place winners will be entered in the state festival to be held at UNC-Greensboro.

Luncheon was served after the judging.

The following new district officers were announced: Mrs. Heywood Lynch of Kings Mountain, president; Mrs. C. H. Bryce of Forest City, vice president; Mrs. William Craig of Gastonia, junior director; and Mrs. W. D. Wymer of Kings Mountain, secretary and treasurer.
